CHIC AND SPORTY FASHIONS PERFECT FOR THE CASUAL, COASTAL LIFESTYLE

When it's time to relax and unwind, catch some rays, cruise in style, or just get out and enjoy our area's pristine beaches or the boating life, it's all about comfort and fun.

Our fashion shoot was staged at the Emerald Coast Marine boating headquarters in Niceville, Florida, nestled on the north side of Choctawhatchee Bay and minutes from the Destin Pass.

To navigate like a local, we visited the popular Silver Sands Premium Outlets in Destin for a sampling of sporty brands especially suited to the salt life. Special thanks to Nautica, Eddie Bauer, Volcom, Salt Life, Sunglass Hut, Saks Off 5th, and American Eagle for opening the vault and sharing a stylish mix of nautical-inspired sportswear and accessories.

Jeff is decked out in Eddie Bauer shorts with plaid shirt, flag cap and Costa sunglasses. Justin passes the gear in Nautica tote bag; he's a fashion statement in Eddie Bauer nautical top, cherry shorts, Eddie Bauer sandals and Americana-inspired Costa sunglasses. Tiffany dons a color-coordinated navy Nautica windbreaker with red tee, white shorts and Nautica flip flops.

Emerald Coast Marine is a five-star-rated retail marine dealership with three locations: Niceville, Destin, and Orange Beach, Alabama. The site of our shoot featured a full-service marina with wet slips; newly constructed, hurricane-rated dry stack storage facility; stunning new two-story indoor showroom; the Emerald Coast Yacht Club; the Emerald Coast Boat Club; and a parts and service department. The sparkling pool is encircled by a spa, deluxe cabana seating, and a tiki bar, while The Local's restaurant offers indoor/outdoor waterfront seating, live music, and some of the best coastal cuisine in the region.

Check out this laid-back, sun 'n' fun clothing collection shot at Emerald Coast Marina amidst a mix of best-selling boats and yachts, the pool, and The Local's award-winning waterfront cafe.
